

“In Cori, Ann Marie Hancock has a very special daughter. Her unwavering strength, positivity and courage in the face of Multiple Sclerosis is inspiring to so many people, including me. Cori’s will to live life to her fullest, despite what she faces every day, is an example for all of us to follow. She’s a Hall of Famer in my opinion!” – Mike Krzyzewski, Duke University and U.S. Senior National Team (2005-16) Head Men’s Basketball Coach
